

American children need more progressive television and parents need the help of the FCC to ensure access to quality material. Please use your authority to further the access to children's programs. Thank you.